

connecting church and home

We learn in Ecclesiastes 3:11 that God has written eternity on the hearts of men and women. What an incredible blessing we have as parents as we seek to point our children to Christ as our chief aim and calling. Our sin separates us from a righteous and just God. The Cross is the ultimate measure of just how seriously God takes sin.

connect

This upcoming week our children will learn just how seriously God takes sin through the life of Noah. We read often in Scripture that man would turn from God and choose sin. BUT we also read of a steadfast and faithful God who sought to rescue mankind from sin. Ultimately God's love for us would be seen in Jesus bearing God's wrath toward sin in our place. Romans 3:23 is a great passage that parents can use to teach their children the seriousness of sin and God's eternal desire for his children.

Treasure Verse: "Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before you" (Psalm 89:14).

.....
"We should view everything in this world by the light of redemption, and then we shall view it aright." – Charles Spurgeon, Come Ye Children, 69
.....

Family Discipleship
connecting church and home