

connecting church and home

Perhaps you have read the story of Debra Kemp. Kemp, age 34, was dragged on her knees for a quarter-mile by a man attempting to steal her car. As the vehicle moved, Kemp grabbed the door and the steering wheel. She pulled The Club, a steering-wheel lock from under the front seat and beat the carjacker with it until he pleaded for mercy. When police arrived on the scene, they found the carjacker unconscious. What was the source of Kemp's tenacity? Her six-year-old daughter was inside the car. Because of Kemp, her daughter was unharmed.

connect

The Treasure Verse this week speaks of a God who is strong and mighty in battle. John 10:10 describes Satan as a thief who seeks to kill and destroy; 1 Peter 5:8 depicts Satan as a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. We are literally in a battle with Satan over the eternal souls of our children. This battle is best fought on our knees, crying out to the One who is strong and mighty in battle!

In what ways has Christ battled for you? Do you have a story of God being strong in battle on your behalf that you can share with your children?

Treasure Verse: "Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!" (Psalm 24:8)

.....
*"Regardless of your relationship to others, whether you're single or married, a husband or a wife, a father, a mother, or a grandparent, your faithfulness and effectiveness in your relationships are directly tied to your understanding of the cross." – C. J. Mahaney, The Cross Centered Life, pg. 80*
.....

Family Discipleship
connecting church and home